A single moment's reflection of time in a backward direction of precious days gone by between which so many wonderful memories lie

With a little laughter and a few years,
Let us journey through our past four years

As freshman year approached and came to be
It became evident that we held our future's key

We were like seeds planted far beneath the ground, ready to grow, but not quite sure of what was waiting to be found

We feared and we dreamt of how college life would be but no one could tell us, only we could set the truth free

As sophomore year came near We felt more confident and less fear
We were faced with new challenges, and opportunity to grow
And searched for familiar faces and people we would like to know
To be our friends and always at our side with nothing to fear and nothing to hide.

Junior year came so quickly, and seemed as fleeting as an April shower
But through that year we gained much insight, knowledge, and power
So that as 1988 came upon us, we blossomed into a beautiful flower

And as the present swiftly progressed into the past Friendships made became strong and were built to last
And for those friendships that survived stormy weather
A tight bond formed like a chain welded together
Many took pride to be a strong link in this chain
In hopes that the closeness now shared will forever remain.

Closeness such as simple moments of love shared Whether it be a look, a smile, a tear Forever standing by and always being there to share their love and show us they care

Gather these sweet memories and store them in your mind so that when the world seems empty, cold, and unkind Just close your eyes, and remember memories are ours to borrow to get us through to another tomorrow Recall both the shared good times and bad for these friends are the best anyone ever had

With a soothimg smile, a gentle sigh
To these friends we bid a tearful thanks and goodbye
But remember, goodbye does not mean forever
The memories we made at Merrimack are ours to treasure
And though we may be miles apart
We will always remain in our friends' hearts
For May 15, 1988, does not mean our friendships end Because we know to find our strength in friends.

FIRST

SNOWFALL

Dear Rabbi,

The 1988 Yearbook Staff would like to take this time to thank you.

We appreciated all the smiles and laughs you have us throughout this past year. It was nice to see a friendly face when our work was getting frustrating.

Thanks for the incentive.

The 1988 Merrimackan Staff

In loving memory of Carla Lynne Abrahamson
and Shaun Scully

Treasure every moment
warmed by friendship,
for more and more
my heart has come to learn How precious are the gifts of understanding,
of thoughtfulness,
and mutual concern,
How precious are the ties of love and caring that weave our separate lives
so close together,
treasure every moment
warmed by friendship...
for every one brings joy to last forever.

MERRIMACTION SPRING BREAK — 1988

Each Spring a group of Merrimack students spend their Spring Break serving those who are less privileged than ourselves. This year was no different. Seventeen students and Patty McAndrews, campus minister, went to Orland, Maine and worked with the H.O.M.E. (Homeworkers Organized for More Employment) Cooperative. H.O.M.E. has a vertically integrated economic system and we participated in much of it. We harvested trees, worked the sawmill and milled lumber and shingles and then built homes with it. There is also time for some rest and relaxation. Throughout the course of the week self-confidence is gained, firm friendships are formed and there is satisfaction from having participated in such an endeavor.

Thanks,

Elizabeth A. Powers

SPECIAL THANKS TO CAROL TAYLOR, TOM BARNES & FR. SHAW.

TO EVERYONE ELSE WHO HELPED ALONG THE WAY....

To the Class of 1988,

Every four years a large group of people from various locations around the world, with different lifestyles and languages are brought together as one at the Olympics.

Each of these people have their own values, personalities, opinions, religious beliefs and political views. Yet, they are all striving for the same goal - THE OLYMPIC MEDAL! Although they start as strangers and competitors they all gain a bonding through mutual respect. Even their supporters learn to accept and applaude for their competition. When all is over it does not seem to be the actual accomplishment that is remembered as much as the friends made and the time shared along the way.

It is for this reason that we have chosed the OLYMPIC THEME for this edition of the MERRIMACKAN. We, the Class of 1988, were all strangers when we met four years ago. We all came from different backgrounds with different values and opinions. Yet, we too were all reaching for the same goal.

Our days at MERRIMACK our all over now. Lets never forget the friends we made and the time we shared together.

Best of luck everyone,
The '88 Staff
